A VERY little straw, you see,
Does very plain reveal,
That when you touch a Kehoe up,
The Carlisle end will squeal.
And when the explanation's made
Of this eccentric caper,
You'll find out who it is that wants
That "Democratic paper."

MRS. NANCY DENT died at Flemingsburg, on the 30th ult., and Miss Sallie McCleary in the same neighborhood on the 31st.

THE Ripley Bee and Times says:

The City of Ironton was positively sold last week, to parties in Vicksburg, for $14,500. $5,000 down and the balance in one and two years.

An eight year old son of George Thompson, was drowned at Levanna, Ohio, a few days ago. This makes the second child he has lost by drowning.

A DESPATCH was received this morning by Mr. S. S. Miner, announcing the death of Mr. Charles E. Cooper, at Evansville, Ind. He was the son of the late Elijah Cooper, formerly of this city.

CARDS have been sent out announcing the wedding of Miss Lorena Owens, of Louisville, to Mr. Frank M. Pomeroy, of the same place. Miss Owens is well-known in Maysville.

THE bridge east of Carlisle, spanning Brushy Fork, was washed away by the storm on the 31st ult. The rain lasted about an hour. Many dwellings were flooded and foot-bridges washed away.

THE Mercury says the BULLETIN has "no influence outside of the ward in which it is printed." Perhaps, but then you must remember it is a powerful big ward and takes in many little towns like Carlisle.

THE towboat Tom Rees No. 2, passed up Thursday evening from Louisville to Pittsburg with the old Thompson Dean in tow. The machinery of the Dean will be placed on the Will. S. Hays now being constructed at the latter place.

THE following marriage licenses have been issued in Brown county, Ohio, since our last report:

Jackson Downs and Geneva Smithson.
Joseph C. Swartz and Annie Downing.
John Bush and Anna Boston.
William H. Stayton and Martha Luderbank.

THE new directors of the Newport and Big Sandy railroad are J. B. Hawse, Isaac Gates, A. L. Reed, E. H. Pardee, F. H. Davis, all of New York; Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, James Barbour, Col. Frank S. Owens, of this city, and Gen. John Echols, of Virginia.

THE marriage of Miss Sallie Sutherland, of Winchester, Ky., to Mr. John H. Hall, of this city, was solemnized at the former place yesterday evening. Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hall, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Sam. M. Hall, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Strode, Mr. W. F. Hall, Miss Affie Watson, and other Maysville friends were present. The party will arrive at home to-night. The BULLETIN offers its congratulations and best wishes.

Hon. Garrett S. Wall.
Mt. Sterling Sentinel.

Among the numerous aspirants for Congress in our neighboring 9th District, we see the name of Hon. Garrett S. Wall, of Mason county. He has served two terms as County Judge of Mason with ability and acceptance. He is an industrious lawyer, a man in the prime and vigor of life, beloved by and popular with his people, of pure irreproachable character, and a Democrat with an unblemished record. Should the mantle of Congressional honor fall on him, the district would have a worthy representative. Judge Wall is a son of Dr. Wall, an eminent physician of Mason, and the brother-in-law of Lewis Apperson, Esq., of this city.

Clarke County Democrat.

We see that Hon. Garrett S. Wall, of Mason, is mentioned as a candidate for congress in his district. The Judge is an admirable gentleman, has a clear, cool head and much culture, is an active, faithful democrat and has made a very useful and popular officer. He will make a strong race and if nominated will be elected by a large majority.

A Call.

LEWISBURG, Ky., June 1, 1882.

Judge Garrett S. Wall: Having full confidence in your competency and fidelity, to discharge the duties of representative of the 10th Congressional District, if you should be elected; we, the undersigned democrats of the Lewisburg precinct, petition you to allow your name to come before the democratic nominating convention to take place

1882:
J. D. Dougherty, W. B. Rawlings,
Henry King, A. J. Calvert,
J. R. Lashbrooke, R. Wells,
W. S. Calvert, Alex. Calvert,
C. F. Cook, George Garrison,
R. T. Calvert, R. W. Wells,
R. M. Harrison, G. W. Gray,
K. Bullock, W. L. Hart,
J. M. Thomas, G. R. Best,
W. S. Mitchell, E. R. Davis,
O. L. King, L. S. Luttrell.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Miss Fannie Calvert is visiting friends at Ripley.

Misses Lillie Smith and Annie Stockton, are visiting Mrs. R. D. Stockton at Georgetown Ky.

Miss Sallie Kackley, of Hillsboro, Ky., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Eliza McClanahan.

Mr. Joseph Brenner and daughter, have returned from a visit to friends and relatives, at Cincinnati.

Hon. George T. Halbert, of Vaneeburg, was in Maysville yesterday, and dropped in to see his friends of the BULLETIN.

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County Court, since our last report:

Elizabeth et als., to J. N. Boyd, lot 54x95 feet on Beach street, Dover, Ky.; consideration, $55.
Arthur Berry et als., to W. S. Frank, house and lot on east side of Limestone street, between Second and Third; consideration, $1,450.
Henry L. Parry to Needham Parry 37 acres, 3 roads and 26 poles in Mason county, Ky.; consideration, $2,274.
Martha A. Dimmitt to James S. Hise, lot 40x165 feet on Third street, fifth ward of Maysville, Ky.; consideration, $150.
Rachel Kirk's heirs, &c., by master commissioner, to Sallie B. Kirk, deed of partition.
James S. Hise and wife to James B. Fristoe, lot 40x165 feet on Third street, fifth ward, Maysville; consideration, $850.

LIKE the owl he has no love for daylight and glides about in the dark seeking by equivocal innuendo to injure the business or reputation of his more honorable and successful competitors in business.—Carlisle Mercury.

As the Mercury is not a competitor in business with the BULLETIN, it probably refers to the criticisms we have felt called upon to make of the propriety of running the Race Association in the interest of the printing office of J. D. Kehoe. This we imagine is where the shoe really pinches and is what has set the Carlisle end of the dynasty to squealing.

ANOTHER call upon Judge Wall to enter the congressional race appears elsewhere. It is signed by some of the best Democrats in the Lewisburg precinct.

Says the Bracken Chronicle:

The troubles of the C. & S. E. R. R., we are informed, have been adjusted and that work has and will resume this week all along the line. Indeed, we have received information that at some points work did not cease at all and has been steadily pursued since the working season began. The friends of the enterprise have their confidence restored and it is believed now that work will be pushed forward to completion with vim.

The Villainy Accomplished.

Washington Cor. Enquirer.

The House late this evening seated Mackey, the contestant, by a strict party vote, and unseated Dibble, the sitting member. The debate fully corroborated the fact that Mackey had altered the testimony upon which the contest was based, the speech of Judge Atherton, of Ohio, bringing out all the rascality of the contestant. After voting in Mackey a resolution of censure upon Speaker Keifer for his infamous ruling on Monday last was offered by McLain, of Indiana. It produced a scene of excitement and disorder, and was of course tabled by the Speaker's partisans. Before adjourning the case of Bisbee vs. Finley, of Florida, was called up. It is the intention to unseat Finley to-morrow, and on Friday to unseat Gen. Wheeler, of Alabama, to be followed on Saturday with with some other case. The republicans have made up their minds to unseat every Southern Democrat whose seat is contested, no matter what the merits may be. It was the programme arranged when the session began, and it is to be carried out strictly to the letter.
